Birmingham & District Premier Cricket League

This privacy notice explains how your personal data will be used and protected and your legal rights in respect of it.

About us

The Birmingham & District Premier Cricket League (BDPCL) referred to as ('us' or 'we' or 'our' or 'the League') is a Premier Cricket League operating with the following objectives and responsibilities:

- To organise and administer a Regional Premier Cricket League in the conurbation of the West Midlands including Herefordshire, Shropshire, Staffordshire, Warwickshire and Worcestershire.
- To promote that which is best for the development of cricket within the above geographical area, including the very highest standards of performance, sportsmanship and playing facilities, whilst preparing the best young players for professional cricket.
- To provide strong leadership that will benefit cricket across the whole of the West Midlands region.
- To provide a safe and positive environment where cricket can be played and watched at its member clubs.
- To manage the discipline of the League, and its participants, in accordance with its rules, the Laws of the game and the ECB General Conduct Rules
